

—AP WIREPHOTO

LARGEST GROUP BURIAL IN MILITARY CEMETERY

Fifty-two caskets with the remains of 248 men who died in 1945 when an explosion blast the navy ammunition ship Serpens off Guadalcanal are draped with American flags in Arlington National cemetery, Washington, D.C., yesterday in the largest group burial for a military cemetery in the United States. Relatives attending the burial are in foreground.